

The Conduct of Life Collection

The Conduct of Life Collection consists of works related to moral instruction to youth as well as advice to housewives and mothers from the 16th to the 20th Centuries. These books are located in the Ames Library Tate Archives & Special Collections on the fourth floor and are not available for checkout. The books may be consulted in the Archives Reading Room. Tate Archives & Special Collections' hours can be accessed by navigating to the Library Homepage, selecting the "Contact" tab and clicking on "Tate Archives" from the drop-down list.

Search for all titles in the collection:

1. Go to <<http://www.iwu.edu/library/>>
2. In the "Home" tab, click on the link that reads "Ames Catalog" under the Designation "Other Catalogs."

The screenshot shows the library website's navigation menu at the top: My Accounts, Using the Library, Technology, About Ames, and Contact. Below this is a sub-menu with Home, Articles & Journals, Quick Facts, Digital Commons, and Image Collections. The main content area features a MegaSearch bar, a search button, and links for Advanced Search and What's MegaSearch?. There are sections for Databases (with an A-Z list of databases link), Research Guides by Subject (with a dropdown menu), and How Do I? (with links for Begin My Research, Borrow & Renew Materials, Locate Print Materials, and Make a Suggestion). The 'Other Catalogs' section is circled in red and includes links for Ames Catalog (Books, Music & Videos), IShare (Illinois Libraries), WorldCat (Worldwide Libraries), and CRL (Center for Research Libraries). On the right side, there is an AskAmes chat window that is online, with a 'get meebop' button. At the bottom left, there is a 'Highlights' section with a photo of the library building and a list of links: Checkout a Kindle, Popular Reading Collection, IWU Historical Research, Student Assistant Application, and Teaching, Learning & Technology Blog. At the bottom right, there is the AskAmes logo and contact information: By Appointment • Phone • Email.

3. Toward the top of the page of the pop-up window, where large text shows “Advanced Search” as the selected medium, move to its right and choose “Classic Search.”
4. This should bring you to a page with tabs labeled “Quick Search,” “Advanced Search,” and “Course Reserves.” Choose Advanced Search.
5. Then, type in “Conduct of Life” in the first box, then modify the drop-down box to its right to “these words as a phrase” and then in the last box on the far right, choose “Note Words.” This will give you all the books in our Conduct of Life Collection.
